

SERVICES AT UCT REFUGEE CLINIC DURING LOCKDOWN

The Refugee Rights Clinic remains committed to assisting refugees during the Corona Virus (COVID-19) pandemic.

We have taken into consideration that refugees and asylum seekers are a vulnerable group in South Africa. In order to ensure that refugees and asylum seekers continue to receive legal services during this pandemic we have implemented the following plan in order to ensure the safety of our clients and staff.

APPOINTMENT PROCEDURE AT THE CLINIC FROM THE 16TH MARCH 2020

Please call the clinic to make an appointment. You can do so via telephone or email. We are taking appointments from Monday to Thursday.

NB: On the day of your appointment you will receive a call from your attorney. The consultation will be conducted telephonically.

If you have a court appearance our attorneys have the relevant permits to attend court with you if necessary.
